Join us

For more than 30 years, Lubeznik Center for the Arts (LCA) has provided arts experiences to the public, enhancing education, economic development and quality of life throughout the region.

The architecturally iconic Lubeznik Center for the Arts stands just steps away from Michigan City's lakefront Washington Park. In addition to a full exhibition schedule in four galleries, the LCA is home to both permanent and outdoor art collections; a Gallery Shop featuring handcrafted, artisan items; plus classes, performances and memorable after-hours events.

Your membership supports world-class arts programming, education and outreach throughout the region. Join us and be the spark for a stronger, more vibrant Lubeznik Center for the Arts. Learn more, or join online at lubeznikcenter.org

We are the Spark

Lubeznik Center for the Arts (LCA) carves out an accessible space in the community where the spark of inspiration and imagination can be ignited with:

- World-class exhibits featuring acclaimed work by international, national and regional artists;
- Exceptional performances including musical, drama and dance; poetry slams and readings;
- Top-notch educational presentations and interpretive programs;
- Participatory arts activities engaging both children and adults;
- Academic outreach and scholarship programs serving children and adults with limited resources and access to arts experiences;
- Creative and social opportunities for young adults, nurturing tomorrow's art patrons; and
- Leadership in promoting the arts as a catalyst for economic development.

Lubeznik Center for the Arts is a provider of, and advocate for, vibrant arts experiences in the region, contributing to economic vitality and shared quality of life.
